

PRIME PATH to the Weekend!

Vol. 1 | October 14, 2022

Happy Halloween Weekend!

There's a chill in the air...and another week of great stories to catch up on! Make sure you read to the end to get special deal! Have a fun and safe Halloween, even if your'e too old to trick-or-treat.

Industry News

FDA Official: MDUFA V funding will help global harmonization efforts

An FDA official says that increased MDUFA funding will aid in harmonizing regulations with international partners.
Read more
Source: Regulatory Focus

Robotic surgery market shakes up as Medtronic's Hugo secures new general surgery approval

Medtronic's Hugo robotic-assisted surgery system secured approval Europe, Japan, and Canada, heating up the robotic surgery market.
Read more
Source: Medical Device Network

Do Not Use Certain Mighty Bliss Electric Heating Pads Due to Risk of Injury: FDA Safety Communication

Watch out, the FDA just issued a recall for these heating pads to risk of injury, burns, and electric shock.
Read more
Source: U.S. Food and Drug Administration

Baylor College Develops Fast Method to Visualize Organs

The EZ Clear, developed by researchers at the Baylor College of Medicine, allows fo researchers to view tissues without impacting the actual structure of the tissue
Read more
Source: MD+DI

AstraZeneca's Imjudo finally snags first approval—only in an ever-crowded liver cancer field

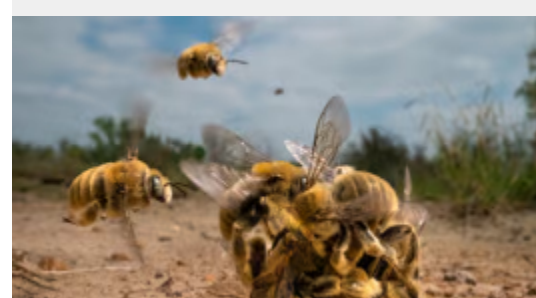

AstraZeneca finally secured its first FDA approval, sold under the brand name Imjudo. It is designed for treating one of the most common types of liver cancer.
Read more
Source: Fierce Pharma

Feel Good Stories

Mythbusted: Goldfish Have Great Memories and Are Even Used as a Model Species of Fish Cognition

Having the memory of a goldfish may not be such a bad thing anymore. Looks like we should give our fishy friends a little more credit
Read more
Source: Good News Network

Wildlife Photographer of the Year 2022: the winning images

Check out some of the winning shots for Wildlife Photographer of the Year 2022. These are shots of nature you definitely don't see every day.
Read more
Source: PositiveNews

Prime Path Weekly Blog

GDP for GMP – Black or Blue Ink?

This week's blog goes over Good Documentation Practices, and how they tie in with Good Manufacturing Practices. GDPs are critical to any organization looking to enter the medical device market.

Read more

Prime Path News

The Halloween Training Sale is here!

Celebrate Halloween with this spooktacular deal! Don't miss out on 75% off all training courses from 10/28 to 11/3.

Deal includes:

- Complaint/Feedback Training
- ISO 13485:2016/FDA Part 820 QMS Training (Fundamentals)
- Medical Device Verification and Validation (Introductory)

Find out more

Follow Us

Sent to: %EMAIL%

Unsubscribe

%SENDER-INFO-SINGLELINE%